Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welch, of Flint announce the marriage of their son Lee to Miss Cassie Lewis on Saturday, Nov. 25th, at 3:00 o'clock. The young couple left on a short wedding trip and will be at home to their friends in their newly furnished home at 1212 Poplar street after Dec. 1.

Parents, are you aware of where your boy or girl is after the city curfew whistle sounds from the power house at 8:50? If you do not know, means should be used to find where he or she is and what they are amusing themselves at. The home is the place for your children after 9:00 in the evening, and parents should insist that the boy or girl is off the streets at that hour.

The Sunshine class of the Methodist Episcopal church, with their teacher, Miss Spaulding, were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mildred Menerey, west of town last week. The girls walked out immediately after school and spent the afternoon until supper in sewing. Mrs. Menerey served a bountiful supper composed of pressed chicken, scalloped potatoes, fresh rolls, cabbage salad and cocoa to the hungry girls, who declared it was far too early to leave when cars were sent for them at seven o'clock, after they had enjoyed Victrola music and games.

A young man begins to get his real education when he sets out to make his own way in the world.

Men were originally as God made them, but greed and grab rubbed off a whole lot of their early originality.

A number of our local people attended the musical extravaganza "Chu-Chin-Chow," at the Majestic in Port Huron Monday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Beadle, of St. Clair, on Friday, November 24th, a baby daughter. Yale friends are offering congratulations and best wishes.

Seventy delegates, headed by E. T. May, county Y. M. C. A. secretary will represent St. Clair county at the State Older Boys' conference to be held in Battle Creek Dec. 1, 2 and 3.

It is unlawful to dig skunk, rabbit or any fur-bearing animals from their dens. The fine for violation is from $5 to $100, or 30 days' imprisonment, or both at the discretion of the court. Game wardens say this law will be rigidly enforced.

Clyde E. Richards, Clifford Hutton and Ronald Toft attended a gathering of the Michigan Retail Hardware association at Port Huron last Friday evening. Charles J. Nelson, of Detroit, was the speaker of the evening. His subject was the value of advertising, salesmanship and service. There was a large attendance both from the city and throughout the Thumb.
